

JAMAICA ME HAPPY, VIRGINIA WELDON PARK, SEPT. 8

UTM's award-winning steel drum band, Jamaica Me Happy, will be bringing its music to the Soybean Festival on Sept. 8. The ensemble, composed of students and supervised by Dr. Julie Hill, performs both traditional calypso music and arrangements of modern hits. The concert will feature upbeat and exciting songs that are perfect for the whole family to enjoy. "We're very excited to be performing," said Hohner Porter, a UTM percussion student and leader of the group. "It's gonna be a lot of fun."

The concert will be held at Virginia Weldon Park at 6:30 p.m. More information on the group can be found at utm.edu/departments/percussion/jamaicamehappy.
