

GIFT IDEA: LSA Holiday Art Bazaar at UTM

The League of Striving Artists and the UT Martin Department of Visual and Theatre Arts will present the fourth annual Holiday Art Bazaar Dec. 7-9 in the Fine Arts Building Gallery. The LSA Holiday Art Bazaar is a way for students, faculty and community members to come together in a local event to support the arts in the area.

The Bazaar began in 2014 as a fundraising event for The League of Striving Artists. LSA is the student art organization at UT Martin, and actively works both on campus and locally to promote the development of artists through academics, community, service learning and leadership. In the past three years, LSA has partnered with the local communities of Martin, Dresden, Greenfield, Union City, South Fulton, Bradford and Sharon in a wide array of public art projects, workshops and events.

Works in the LSA bazaar are created by students, faculty and alumni of the University. This year's bazaar will feature the work of around 30 artists. Work will include pottery and various types of handmade ceramic items, hand-knitted and crocheted items, paintings, handmade candles, drawings, hand-blown glass Christmas ornaments, woodburned home decor, handmade books, and much more. Many of the items in the bazaar make excellent gifts for family and friends—just in time for the holidays! Proceeds from the event will go to benefit The League of Striving Artists to aid in funding its service events, projects, workshops and art-related activities throughout the year.

The bazaar will be open to the public in the UT Martin Fine Arts Building Gallery from 7 to 8 p.m. on Dec. 7, from 11 a.m. to 7 p.m. on Dec. 8, and from 10 a.m. to

STRIVING ARTISTS — The LSA will be having its annual Holiday Art Bazaar Dec. 7-9

4 p.m. on Dec. 9. Support the Arts (STARTS) contributors will join students and faculty for an early “insider” opening of the event on Dec. 7 from 5 to 7 p.m.
