

Best Antique Store: Kirkland's Furniture, Lighting & Gifts

When fine antiques are mentioned, Weakley County Press readers think Kirklands in Martin.

For many years, Warner Pace offered the finest, unique antiques.

Today, after building the reputation for honesty and customer service, the shop has seen many transitions and has expanded their lines to include everything you need to build and furnish a home plus gifts and collectibles that will please the discerning.

Over the last few years, the shop has added a big city feel showroom that includes furnishings for home and office, a large selection of lighting and accessories to complete the look.

Kirkland's also offer design services and decorating for home or business, window treatments, including plantation shutters, blinds and drapes.

Last year, the shop added Ronaldo designer jewelry, the world's finest hand-crafted jewelry to give another option to local shoppers for unique gifting.

No longer just antiques – Kirklands in Historic Downtown Martin is the one-stop, must shop at destination for your needs.

Best Clothing Store: Sugar & Spice

Experience the joy of giving this holiday season at Sugar & Spice in Martin. Owner Sharon Maloan offers many new reasons to shop Sugar & Spice this season.

They are now a "shop-in-shop" dealer offering more Pandora selections than ever before. They have also added to their collection Gabriel Jewelry & Vahan Jewelry which is silver, 14kt, diamonds, and precious stones.

So many gift ideas at all price points can be found at Sugar & Spice, like Kendra Scott, Alex & Ani, VSA, Kate Spade, Theia, Fossil and Daniel Wellington watches. They have spent 24 years adding to their product mix to make Sugar & Spice a one-stop shop with brands like Uggs, FreePeople, TrueGrit, Hobo, Frye and much more. They have the big city brands with the hometown customer service and they offer free gift wrap.

Sharon and all of the ladies who work at Sugar & Spice truly appreciate your business and thank you for voting them The Weakley County Best of the Best!
