

Best Veterinarian: Weakley County Animal Clinic

Dr. Joe Adcock and the staff of Weakley County Animal Clinic said they would once again like to thank everyone for voting them the county's best veterinarian service. The clinic and Dr. Joe have claimed this honor for the last nine years.

"We take great pride in receiving this award as it proves we are fulfilling our mission of treating your pets as if they were ours," Dr. Adcock said.

Weakley County Animal Clinic is a full service veterinary practice established in 1976.

It offers wellness care, diagnostics, surgery, hospitalization, dental care and new laser treatment options for your pet. The clinic is open six days a week.

The Clinic is located at 110 Weldon Drive, Martin, and may be reached at 731-587-5319.

Best Barber: Hair Cuts R Us

Oki Woolridge is a well-known face around Martin. He is not just a barber, but serves as a mentor for youth in the community. Woolridge's dedication to his clients and their families has not gone unnoticed by people of Weakley County.

For the second year in a row, Woolridge has been chosen by readers of The Press as the Best Barber in Weakley County. He is a devoted father and dedicated community youth leader, who offers a wide range of services to the entire community, men women and children. Woolridge has been in business since 2007.

Woolridge, who is well-trained in the precision of military haircuts, specializes in children's haircuts. "I try to instill as much respect as I can in our youth and I believe they will return it to our world one day," Oki said. His focus is training up children.

Woolridge serves as a coach for youth league sports, offers a basketball court for children to use as well as games for his families, making a "trip to the salon" more than just a cut and style.

He also offers incentives and special discounts for children based on their good grades on their report cards.

The community barber said he was to offer guidance and leadership for youth in his community. He also provides discounts to veterans and senior citizens, as well as father and son specials for their trip to the barber shop.

Located at 225 N. Lindell St. in Martin, Woolridge invites you to stop by and give him a try. He promises affordable cuts for everyone. Make sure to bring the kids, as children enjoy hanging out at the shop and playing video games, board games, basketball and many other activities. He is also available to make "house calls" to nursing homes or for the disabled who live at home. Just call him at 819-8373.
