

Best Accountant: Jack Reese, CPA, PFS of Cowart Reese Sargent

For 8 of 11 years, Weakley County Press readers have voted Jack Reese CPA, with Cowart, Reese, Sargent CPA firm, as their choice for Best Accountant in The Press' annual Readers Choice edition.

In September 2010, Reese merged his accounting practice with Cowart Sargent & Webb, forming a new company, Cowart Reese Sargent CPAs. The firm later brought in the additional firms of Cozart & Associates, Fred Lawrence & Associates and Joe Enoch CPA. Currently they have offices in Jackson, Martin, Paris, Brownsville, Dyersburg and Milan.

The firm's core values follow the 4C's:

Community – Belief in active involvement in the communities served. Team members are encouraged to give of their time and talents to area organizations and causes.

Character – Integrity must be shown in every action. Confidence and trust in the firm is the most important quality that can be demonstrated to clients, team members and the community.

Competency – The firm provides the highest level of professionalism by being proactive, reliable and timely in the services provided. Under promising and over delivering.

Caring – The firm demonstrates caring by constantly being aware that we must keep a servant's heart toward everyone they meet.

"Our firm is always prepared to take on the challenges that the public has come to expect from their accountant. We are committed to providing our clients with the professional knowledge, integrity and service they deserve," Reese said.

"We are honored to have been chosen by the readers."

The Martin office is located at 304 Broadway Street in the historic district.
