

Local Civil Air Patrol Squadron creates ornaments for governor's residence

The Everett-Stewart Composite Squadron recently completed 15 homemade ornaments to honor Tennessee's heroes as part of a state-wide Civil Air Patrol initiative.

The ornaments are being displayed in the Governor's Residence during its seventh annual "Tennessee's Home for the Holidays" in this month. This year's theme is "Tennessee's Heroes" and highlights the Tennessee Military and veterans, Tennessee Department of Safety, local law enforcement, first responders and all Tennessee servicemen and women.

Cadet Capt. Sarah Foltz said, "We wanted to be a part of celebrating the heroes in Tennessee and thanking them for their service. This is a small token of our appreciation, and we are honored to participate in this state wide effort with Civil Air Patrol."

Civil Air Patrol, the long-time all-volunteer U.S. Air Force auxiliary, is the newest member of the Air Force's Total Force. In this role, CAP operates a fleet of 560 aircraft, performs about 90 percent of continental U.S. inland search and rescue missions as tasked by the Air Force Rescue Coordination Center and is credited by the AFRCC with saving an average of 80 lives annually. CAP's 57,000 members also perform homeland security, disaster relief and drug interdiction missions at the request of federal, state and local agencies. CAP also plays a leading role in aerospace/STEM education, and its members serve as mentors to 24,000 young people participating in CAP's Cadet Programs.
