

TIME TO SHINE — South Fulton Mayor David Lamb counted down the lighting of the community Christmas tree at the Unity Park stage during the recent Christmas in the Parks festivities, centered around the South Fulton park and the neighboring Pontotoc Park in downtown Fulton. Other activities included the singing of Christmas carols, a visit by Santa, a holiday bazaar, a live nativity, a benefit chili supper and displays of large plywood community cards and decorated light poles downtown. The events were sponsored by Fulton Tourism and the City of South Fulton and its parks and recreation.

SLEIGH UPGRADE — Santa Claus showed off some new wheels at the Kenton Christmas parade, courtesy of his friends from Campbell Arms Manufacturing in McKenzie. While Santa will most likely continue to use his trusty sleigh and crimson-nosed wildlife as his horsepower, he can always rely on this truck to help him carry that many more presents to children all over West Tennessee.
