Horn Plumbing's Bank Helps Their Cash Flow.

Left to Right, Ashley Horn, Ricky Horn, Erick Horn-Macler, Debbie Horn, Stephanie Horn Ellison and Nick Ellison.

When Horn Plumbing and Heating owners Ricky and Debbie Horn looked for a new bank 20 years ago, Community First had just opened its doors in West Plains.

New is what they wanted. And Community First offered a new level of friendliness, convenience and capabilities that their old bank couldn't match.

"Community First's employees are our friends, people we can work with" says

Debbie. "They've made loans for our business, our farm, our automobiles. They handle all our banking."

"It's locally owned, so decisions are made right here. You know quickly when your loan is approved."

Come discover the hometown banking difference at Community First. We're a community neighbor — and a plumber's friend.
