

From My Amish Kitchen

By DORIS YODER

For The Graphic-Clarion We are having lovely fall weather this week. Frost stir until melted. Remove covered the ground this morning. It was a nice crisp morning to hang out laundry

This is an extra busy week. I delivered the usual breads, cinnamon rolls, and cookies to Mt. Zion and Mattoon Rural Kings.

This Friday evening and Saturday (the 10th and 11th) is the Christmas Craft Show at the Mt. Zion Convention Center. I set up to sell Christmas gift baskets and baked goods.

On Friday evening barbecued pork and chicken Pepper, to taste salad sandwiches are on the menu serve sausage gravy and biscuits with chicken and noodles, mashed potatoes, and green beans for the lunch menu

I also have a wedding to cater in Philo for 80 people. They want brunch served after their wedding ceremony.

Sausage gravy and biscuits, a breakfast casserole (eggs and potatoes), fresh fruit salad, and cinnamon rolls with coffee and orange juice will complete their meal.

Next 18th), stop in for our Christ- 1/4-cup brown sugar mas Open House to check 1/4- to 1/2-cup pecans out our cash and carry gift 2 tablespoons butter baskets.
