

OBTUARIES

Magalene Ervin Dutton, 93

Funeral service and a celebration of life for Magalene Ervin Dutton, age 93, of Smithville was held Dec. 30 at DeKalb Funeral Chapel. Bro. Jimbo Eddins officiated with burial following in the Whorton Springs Cemetery. Ms. Magalene passed away Monday night, Dec. 25 at The Webb House in Smithville. Ms. Magalene worked in factory work from 1942 until 1955 in Detroit and moved back to DeKalb County in 1955. Around 1957 she went to work at Webb's Drug Store. In 1960 she opened a restaurant in Smithville on Main Street and owned and operated it for some 10 years. After that she started buying real estate and developing subdivisions. In 1969 she married Billy Dutton and moved to McMinnville. They had a roofing company, so she then became a roofer also. She continued to work her real estate and the roofing company until 1995. She said that at the age of 70 she thought it was time to stop going on top of buildings, however she continued with her real estate. In Ms. Magalene's own words, she said, "Just call me a jack of all trades and a master of none." She was a member of Allen's Chapel United Methodist Church since the age of 14 and a former member of the Business and Professional Women's Club.

She was born August 4, 1924 to her parents, the late Walter Cantrell and Bonnie Taylor Cantrell McHargue. In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by step-father, Arlis McHargue; sister, Juanita Graham; and special great nephews, Gregory Allen Graham and Tyler Graham. She is survived by nieces and nephews, Faye McCormick, Regina Amon, Mitchell Graham, Kent Graham and Rex Graham; special cousin, Jo (Jess) Baker; and several great-nieces and nephews and friends. Serving as pallbearers were Kent Graham, Andrew Graham, Chris Aman, Larry McCormick, Cory Davis, and Josh Graham. DeKalb Funeral Chapel, Smithville, was in charge of the arrangements.

Kenneth Echols, 90

Kenneth Echols went to be with our Lord on December 19, 2017. Born on Dec. 5, 1927, and a native of Amarillo, Texas, Ken "Slim" Echols worked on his grandparent's farm in the summer picking cotton. He was a football star who played for the University of Montana and West Texas State. Drafted by the LA Rams, he chose love and country and hung up his cleats to marry Betty Ann Sharp of McAllen, Texas and serve his country in the US Navy. Ken served in both the Pacific and Atlantic. His last eight years were at the Pentagon with the Defense Intelligence Agency. After 24 years of service he retired as a Lieutenant Commander. Among his honors Ken received a letter of commendation for his Outstanding Performance during the Cuban Missile Crisis. After retirement Ken and Betty and their fourth child settled in Smithville where he was a general manager of Four Seasons Resort and Marina for 11 years. They settled in Tucson in 1992 to grow old with their kids and raise emus. Ken was preceded in death by his wife Betty and son Joe. He is survived by his son Jason and two daughters Julie and Chella. Grandad was very proud of his six grandsons, one granddaughter and three great-grandchildren and was blessed to have them all here in Arizona. Our Gentle Giant - to know him was to love him. A private interment at Fort Rosecrans National Cemetery will be held in January. In lieu of flowers the family would like you to consider a donation to Fidelity Care Corner or Emblem Hospice. Adair Funeral Home, Tucson, Ariz., was in charge of the arrangements.
