The Tennessee Wildlife Resources Agency is now accepting entries for its 2018-19 photo contest for publication in Tennessee Wildlife's annual calendar issue. All interested photographers are invited to submit up to 10 of their best photos on fishing, hunting, boating, and wildlife species native to Tennessee.

The photos will be reviewed for publication in the annual calendar edition of Tennessee Wildlife, which is the summer issue. If a photo is selected for the calendar edition, the photographer will receive a cash stipend of $60.

Photographers must submit their photo entries by the March 19 deadline. Photos must be horizontal (landscape), in JPEG format, and submitted on a CD. They must be sized to print no smaller than 8-1/2x11 and resolution should be at least 300 pixels/inch.

Photographers must be sure to provide their name, address, phone number, and e-mail address with their disk. Disks cannot be returned. Entries may be mailed to:

DCHS BASKETBALL

The second half was all White County as they heated up the floor by working inside and distributing the basketball well with nine players posting points and again were effective from the line adding 8 more points giving them 19 points from penalty shooting. The Lady Tigers earned 11 points total from the charity stripe.

Brown was DeKalb's points leader with 12 total followed closely by Colwell who hit for 11 points.

Rounding out the total tally for the Lady Tigers were Madison Parsley with 6 points, Megan Walker, Kenzie France and Gracie Griffin were all good for 2-points each and Mya Ruch hit for 1 point from the foul line.

DEKALB CO. TIGERS 64
WHITE CO. WARRIORS 57

The Tigers showed they know how to finish a ball-game Friday, playing tough all four quarters to secure a hard-fought win over

White County made all the sweeter as it took place in front of the home crowd.

Playing an all-around top-notch game, DeKalb's Colter Norris and Noah Martin had the outside game sewed up with 15 and 9 points respectively from outside the arc.

Trey Jones worked inside the paint like Picasso driving for 18 total games leading the Tiger scoring.

It wasn't a cakewalk either as Warrior Grant Slatton scored a game-high 30 points in the game for White County who were a tough opponent to gun down.

Rounding out the Tigers scoring were Norris with 17 points, Austin Johnson with 9, Nathan Atkins and Tanner Poss both scored 7 points, Marshall Evins 4 and Ethan Cantrell added 2 points.
