Refiner's Fire

"Behold, I have refined you, but not as silver; I have tried you in the furnace of affliction."
- Isaiah 48:10

We sing in our churches about how we want God to consume us with his holy fire. The song says, "Set a fire down in my soul that I can't contain that I can't control." But do we really want that? Because the fire can hurt. It refines us. It takes our impurities and burns them out until we shine like Christ. It pulls out the comfort; it pulls out the complacency; it pulls out the carnal desire that we chalk up as natural feelings. It even pulls out the churchiness and the religious spirit. The refiner knows that the process has to take place for a thing to ever truly be pure. But God is there with you in the middle of the fire as real and tangible as He is during times of blessing, just as He was with Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. In the fire is where others could see God's presence with the three Hebrew children, but the fire didn't kill them. Instead, it merely burned away the chains that were holding them. God took their affliction and turned it into the single greatest moment we have recorded about their lives!

Peace, Bro Graden Kirksey Pastor, Refuge Church
