Funeral services were held this past Friday after a man succumbed to injuries he suffered when his vehicle crashed into a tree late last month.

Family and friends said goodbye to Robert Allen Page, 70, during a celebration of his life at DeKalb Funeral Chapel Friday. The pastor at Harvest Time Church and a truck driver with Smithville concrete for nearly three decades, his truck was found a short time after a nearby resident reported hearing a crash.

When help arrived they found Page trapped inside his truck. He was extricated and flown by helicopter to Erlanger Medical Center in Chattanooga where he passed away on April 2, less than a week after the March 27 crash. Investigators say his Nissan truck left the roadway as he was going around a curve, causing it to skid sideways. He clipped a guardrail before going down an embankment and hitting a tree.

Easter weekend a fun time with family and friends

Dry Creek Church celebrated the resurrection of Jesus Christ on Sunday. The congregation and guest rejoiced on this special Easter morning. The children enjoyed an Easter egg hunt after the services.

A lovely Easter dinner was served at my country home Sunday. Those attending were Jimmy and Judy Kimbrell; David, Monica, Levi and Molly Reynolds, Kenny Edge, Buddy and Deborah Fuson of Cabot, Arkansas, Ricky and Kathy Hendrix, Michelle and Brandon Kent, Jared, Jennifer, Sawyer, Maggie and Liam Frazier Hendrix, Jerald and Lisa Cripps, Tiffany and Greyson Cripps, Jordan, Christian, and Claire Cripps, and Dwight Cripps.

Dr. Barbara Frazier of Florence, Alabama, visited me with several pots of flowering plants, some potting soil, and vegetable seedlings for planting at the proper time. These were very much appreciated. I always enjoy Barbara's visits. She is Woodrow and I's first grandchild.

Michele Kent and daughter, Elizabeth Miller of Lascassas, visited me on Saturday. Another visit from a granddaughter and great-granddaughter. They are so special and sweet to me.

Our prayers are for continued blessings and healing of Dr. Greg Ray of Adams, Tennessee. He is the son of

Ernest and Elene Ray also of Adams, Tennessee. Mr. Ernest Ray is the retired principal of Smithville Elementary School, DeKalb Middle School, and DeKalb County High School. Our hearts and prayers are with the Ray families.

Jimmy and Judy Kimbrell received a special visit from his sister, Judy Beard of Loretta the weekend before Easter. She is such a sweet lady.

Get well wishes and prayers ae extended to my neighbor, Jeanette France. Jeanette has inner ear issues. She has been attended by her daughter, Tawiana Box of Brentwood and her grandchildren, Justin and Nickea. She reports she is doing better under their tender care. Jeanette has been a caring neighbor and occasionally brings me eggs and vegetables. Our love goes out to her.

Buddy and Deborah Fuson visited their son and his family, Jeff, Meg, Austin and Alayna of Springfield, Friday and Saturday. They attended a Tennessee Bass fishing tournament in Camden on Saturday. Austin was participating in the tournament. He is an avid fisherman!

Buddy and Deborah Fuson arrived at my home on Easter morning and plan to visit for a couple of weeks. Deborah is my middle daughter, and I greatly appreciate their visit. Jimmy and Judy Kimbrell visited his doctor in Cookeville on Friday. We lift them up daily in our prayers. He reported that he's feeling better.

Dry Creek Baptist Church future activities include: April 18- Annie Armstrong offering for United States Missions. May 13- Mother's Day Special Recognition.
