The sheriff is asking the public's help in solving the break-in of Twisted Oaks last month, after investigators were able to pull video images of the burglar caught on surveillance camera.

"We are asking if you have any information to call me or Detective Bryan Williams," said Sheriff Patrick Ray of the pictures that were released publicly this week. "We've been running leads."

Sheriff Ray said the burglary in question happened at the Nashville Highway establishment on May 23.

"The alarm was given out at 2:04 a.m.," the sheriff noted, adding deputies scrambled and had arrived at the location in about three minutes of the alarm sounding. "They found someone had entered the building and took some cash."

While the culprit was gone when deputies arrived, he unknowingly left his image on video.

"Our detectives were able to watch the cameras and pull images of our suspect," the sheriff said, noting the bearded burglar is a heavysset man who, thus far, has remained unidentified.

The sheriff hopes someone will recognize the pictures and contact his office at 615-597-4935.

Hickory Cafe offers great food, beautiful view

If you're looking for a unique location with some mouthwatering selections to choose from for a weekend dinner then look no further than your own back yard in Dekalb County.

The Retreat at Center Hill Lake is now offering an all-you-can-eat BBQ buffet on Friday and Saturday nights served at its Hickory Cafe. With the perfect blend of hardwood smoked pulled pork, chicken, and sausage, it's certain to fill that hankering.

The Retreat at Center Hill Lake is a Timothy Hill retreat center that became a new neighbor in 2016 with the purchase of Lake Side Resort. It offers a variety of lodging options, conference center, banquet hall, catering services, swimming pool, and boat dock for guests. Individuals, families and all groups are welcome to experience the relaxing atmosphere in their alcohol and tobacco free environment. "We listen to our guests and value their suggestions," said site director, Jamie Campbell. "Many have asked about opening up the restaurant like UCHRA hosted when they managed the property. Our Hickory Cafe is a great opportunity for not only our guests, but our community members to come enjoy a great meal on our beautiful campus."

Located at 358 Relax Drive, The Retreat at Center Hill Lake is convenient for guests traveling by car or by boat. The Hickory Cafe is open 5 to 9 p.m. Friday and Saturday nights with limited availability. Call to inquire about availability each week. Not only does the buffet include three superb unlimited meat choices, but all the delicious sides, homemade desserts, sweet tea and lemonade.

Adults are $20, kids are $12.50, and anyone under 3-feet-tall is free.

"Make it a summer family tradition and visit the Hickory Cafe at The Retreat at Center Hill Lake," says Outreach coordinator Kyle Thompson. "We guarantee you won't go away hungry."
