Better Together

"And though one might prevail against another, two will withstand one.
A threefold cord is not quickly broken." - Ecclesiastes 4:12

We were built for life together. Paul tells us that the church is one body that is only complete when all members are present. Discarding any one of us is no different than cutting off a part of your physical body. You may not die, even though you could, but if you don't leave that member to do what it was meant to do, you'll never be able to accomplish all that you could have accomplished with a whole body. We read in Acts 2 that it was when God's people were all together, in one place, and in one accord that they experienced God in new and miraculous ways, as they were empowered to spread the gospel. We can disagree, and we will undoubtedly have issues from time to time. However, we need each other, if we are going to be all we can be and allow God to use us to change our world. And what's more, heaven is not some magical place where we individually get cool stuff and a big mansion all to ourselves, but it is the promise to everyone who have been saved by Jesus and who now have a place to call their own. Salvation is not some spiritual ticket to avoid Hell. It's an adoption into the family of God, which includes forgiveness from the mistakes that separated us from the Lord in the first place.

Bro Graden Kirksey
Pastor, Christpoint Smithville
