

Kirkland staying with Volunteers

KNOXVILLE (AP) — Tennessee coach Jeremy Pruitt says linebacker Darrin Kirkland Jr. has changed his mind and will be staying with the Volunteers.

Kirkland shared on social media last week that he was leaving

Tennessee after graduating with two years of eligibility remaining.

But Pruitt told reporters Tuesday at the Southeastern Conference meetings in Destin, Florida, that he met Kirkland over the week-end with the linebacker now excited to stay at Tennessee.

Kirkland made 10 starts and had 66 tackles as a freshman in 2015, but injuries limited him in 2016 and prevented him from playing at all last year. He made six starts and had 45 tackles in 2016 but missed five games with a high ankle sprain. He sat out the entire 2017 season with a knee injury.

The Volunteers will begin their season Saturday, Sept. 1 against nationally-ranked West Virginia in Charlotte.

Schofield returning for senior year

KNOXVILLE (AP) — Admiral Schofield is pulling his name out of the NBA draft and returning to Tennessee for his senior season.

Schofield shared his decision on social media Tuesday, saying he is focused and hungry to once again chase championships with his teammates.

The forward tested his NBA draft status without hiring an agent, leaving him the option to return. He worked out last week for the Memphis Grizzlies but was considered a second-round prospect at best.

Schofield wrote that he learned through the draft evaluation process where he needs to improve his game.

The 6-foot-5, 238-pound Schofield averaged 13.9 points and 6.4 rebounds this season while helping Tennessee go 26-9 and win a share of the Southeastern Conference regular-season title.
