F.C. Boyd Christian High School Homecoming 2018 was held recently with all the usual excitement surrounding the high school event. Seniors Gabby VanWormer and Jayden Reno claimed the honors of Homecoming Queen and King. They were crowned by former queens Emma Rhoton and Rhiannon Hoover.

Boyd staff welcomed alumni and former students to the festivities starting with the presentation of the royal court. Senior court members, in addition to VanWormer and Reno were, Elliana Morales, Shawn Duncan, Josh Argo, Alexis Florence, Madelyn Weems, Hannah Young, Justin Disbro, Reagan Roberts, Matthew Turner, Tyler Pomaes, Sara Shrum, Brit Brown and Blake Driver.

Other class representatives were Abby Rhoton, Erica Cantrell, Zoe Witty, Andrew Smith, Jace Oliver and Aiden Lawrence.

First-grade students, Bryce Burch, Liam Moore and Elijah Reed assisted with the distribution of crowns and sashes.

Following the crowning, everyone enjoyed a reception and dinner. Both Boyd basketball teams came out on top following games with Covenant Academy.

Homecoming organizers Jennifer Moore and Ryan Mason are happy with the night's festivities and the attendance.

"We are so proud of both Gabby and Jayden," said Moore. "They are both very well-rounded students who excel in everything they undertake."

VanWormer is the daughter of Stuart and Tiffany Colwell. Tracy and Donna Reno are Jayden's proud parents.
