

“Nobody But You”

By: Jim Boyd

Those who hate truth do all they can to detour the discussion away from truth and attack persons. “You don’t think anybody but you is going to heaven.” So goes the whine of those who want their “do-your-own-thing” religion. Well, not what I think, or you either, determines the truth. The Bible teaches that those who believe and obey the gospel, and remain faithful, will be saved. Do you read of any others? Point to the verse.

If I did not believe it was essential to obey the gospel to be saved, I would ask why did Paul say the gospel saves? The church, entered by obedience, is composed of the saved (Acts 2:47), the very ones Christ saves (Ephesians 5:23), If you have a problem with that, then go on your way and stay lost. Do you think children of the devil are saved?

We invite you to worship with us this Sunday at Central Church of Christ. You will find a warm and friendly welcome as we study God’s word together. Please contact the church office at 473-6537 for questions or comments, or online at <http://www.churchatcentral.org> for other events and information.

Wrestling With God

Many, if not most, of the heroes of the Bible wrestled with God. Jacob literally wrestled with God (or an angel of God, depending on the translation) in the desert and was thereafter named "Israel." The name "Israel" in Hebrew means something akin to "he has struggled with God," suggesting God's willingness to struggle with his people. The story of Abraham depicts someone who must have had an internal struggle with God, for God tested him by asking him to sacrifice his only son Isaac. (Genesis 22) One can only imagine the struggle that Abraham had with God over this, and one has to wonder how this request, despite God relenting at the last moment, came to color Abraham's subsequent relationship with God. Moses argued repeatedly with God and their relationship was contentious at best. In the fourteenth chapter of Numbers Moses seems to actually get God to change his mind about destroying his people. And finally, consider Jesus's struggle in the garden of Gethsemane. He is clearly wrestling with Himself about his imminent trial, suffering and death. Perhaps this is the most relevant to our own struggles with God, for in the end, we are struggling with the God within us. Our conscience is the voice of God telling us what we should do, but our contentious ego has trouble being obedient. It's alright to struggle with God, but at some point all must submit to His overwhelming power and goodness.
