

Mother of 5-year-old arrested

A joint investigation by the Tennessee Bureau of Investigation and the Dickson County Sheriff's Office has resulted in the arrest of the mother of Joe Clyde Daniels, the 5-year-old who was the subject of an Endangered Child Alert last week. Joe Clyde Daniels was reported missing by his parents the morning of Wednesday, April 4.

On Friday, at the request of 23rd District Attorney General Ray Crouch, TBI agents opened an investigation into criminal conduct. During the course of the investigation, and after a three-day search, authorities developed information the child's father, Joseph Daniels, 28, intentionally killed his son sometime during the night of April

3-4 in the family's residence and then hid his son's body. On Saturday, TBI agents arrested Joseph Ray Daniels and charged him with one count of criminal homicide. On Monday, ongoing investigative efforts led TBI agents to arrest Krystal Nicole Daniels, 27, and charge her with one count of aggravated child neglect or endangerment. Agents subsequently booked her at Dickson County Jail on $1 million bond.

Spring cleaning for Earth Day

Main Street McMinnville's 2018 Spring Clean to beautify downtown is slated for the morning of April 21. "This event celebrates Earth Day and provides an opportunity for students and community members to get hands on caring for our historic district," said Katie Kemezis, executive director of Main Street McMinnville. "Spring

Clean is an exciting overlap of civic engagement and environmental stewardship." Volunteers will meet beside the fountain at a welcome booth. From 9 a.m. to 12 p.m., they will spring into cleaning action. "Volunteers will receive assignments and work together to beautify the downtown core with special attention to areas such as alleys and parking areas," said Kemezis. "From the booth, members of Main Street will be handing out assignments to volunteers, sharing tips and resources for environmental stewardship, and offering a place for volunteers to rest." The city of McMinnville will be providing use of garbage cans for trash and bins to collect items for recycling, brooms or rakes to collect leaves, and disposable gloves to protect individuals picking up trash. For more information or to volunteer, call Main Street McMinnville at 506-5335.

Westwood Church of Christ helping Honduras

Back in October, Westwood Church of Christ organized a yard sale to raise money for school uniforms for children in Honduras. Without uniforms, children in that country are not allowed to go to school. The goal was to get these uniforms made before the Honduras school year began in February. "We were able to raise $7,184 for this effort with the help of our community," said Westwood Church of Christ preacher Richard O'Connor. "Seventy-five kids were able to go to school in February and 110 uniforms were made by Honduran women commissioned by Union Church of Christ in Honduras." Union Church of Christ is the home base for the church's mission work. Last year, a small group traveled to Honduras to build houses and assist with other needs. Volunteers arrive in Tegucigalpa and typically travel into the mountains to meet at the church building. This June, similar efforts will take place, but with one special person in mind. "When we go back in two months, we plan to build a house in memory of Tim Jennings," said Richard. "Tim passed away recently at the early age of 44. He was a Godly man and well-known in our community." "At Tim's passing, Debbie, his wife, requested that in lieu of flowers donations be made to the youth ministry or missions at Westwood," added Richard's wife Kim, who has been to Honduras four times. "Tim's life group wanted to do something in his memory so they donated the money for the house. Debbie and all three of their kids are going to Honduras in June because they want to be involved in the building of 'Tim's house,' which will be a Honduran family home," explained Kim. In June, volunteers will build approximately 35 to Honduran women add finishing touches to school uniforms with sewing machines and fabric purchased with mission funds.

Here's a look at four completed school uniforms for female students. As a result of the funds raised through a Westwood Church of Christ yard sale as well as community donations, 75 Honduran children were allowed to attend school in February.
