WCHS volleyball sets roster

Coach Katie Rogers will have to replace three senior starters if the WCHS volleyball team hopes to return to regionals. Good thing reinforcements are on the way.

Several members of the CTC champion WCMS volleyball team made their move to the high school, where they were selected Friday after a two-hour tryout. Upcoming freshmen Bella Cantrell, Madison Hollis, Marli McBride, Juju Pyburn, Danika Reno and Mea Starkey all made the 16-player roster.

They will try to make an impact on a team which does return all-district honorees Hailey Wood and Emily Mikkola, along with two other seniors - Marah Wanamaker and Megan Davis.

"We'll be young but tough," said Rogers. "We lost three seniors, but three return. I expect our seniors to take this big freshman class under their wings and show them the ropes."

The roster also includes Kenley Cathcart, Hannah Lee, Taylor Pegg, Beth Vaughn, Samantha Jennings and Sadie Simmons.

"Beth and Samantha got significant varsity time last season and I'm excited to see them join the regular rotation," said Rogers. "I think we have some tough kids who are ready to step up."

Former Eagles, Wildcats, and Warriors will all now be Pioneers.

The Warren County High School basketball team selected 15 newcomers to compile the freshman team this winter Friday.

Coaches leaned heavily on the WCMS roster, selecting seven former Pioneers. Keldrick Cox, Asher Wallace, Chance Hunter, Jahaad Middleton, Hudson O'Connor, Eli Kuykendal and Caden Beaty all were selected from WCMS.

After playing an instrumental part in an undefeated season at Dibrell, Aaron Ashburn and Jordan Sandlin will take their talents to WCHS. They'll be joined on the roster by former Morrison Eagles Tyler Dunn, Parker Yates and Hunter Musgrove, as well as Blake Adams and Braden Marcum - two top players from Centertown.

Jason Brown rounds out the roster.

Freshman football tryouts this week

WCHS head football coach Tom Moore and his varsity staff are holding tryouts this week for upcoming freshmen boys who wish to play football this season.

Coach Moore asks the boys to report to the locker room area by the gym at the high school on Tuesday, May 29 and Thursday, May 31 from 8:30-10:30 a.m.

"We have an excellent group of boys in our locker room and we are excited to have the freshmen join us. There are no player fees to play here at Warren County," said Moore.
