Abby Sullivan had a hit Thursday when Aaron's Heat and Air completed a 10-0 campaign by beating Smile Doctors.

Caydence Wiser's defense in the circle has been a big reason why Netherton Dentistry took the top spot in the girls 7-9 league, finishing 10-0.

Titans ditch minicamp, spend time with police

NASHVILLE (AP) — The Tennessee Titans wanted to wrap up their offseason with a trip to Fort Campbell.

With soldiers at the Army post busy right now, the NFL team spent the final session of minicamp with police officers.

The Titans made the very short trip to the Metropolitan Nashville Police Department's training center near the team's headquarters and learned about how officers are trained, use of force and gun safety.

"We thought that we would mix some gun safety in with interaction with the police department," coach Mike Vrabel said Thursday.

"There was a lot of chiefs, there was 30 police officers, there was cadets. Our guys got to work one-on-one, and those guys were the coaches for the day. We tried to listen and pay attention the best we could, and had a little fun along the way."

The Titans also shot guns on the range, a first for Vrabel. The coach said the Titans met with NFL officials Wednesday going over league policies, which include no firearms allowed at a team's building, parking lot or hotel. Vrabel said no, this visit was not tied to the national anthem.

"This is about us being with the police officers in our community and gun safety," Vrabel said.

COACH TOM MOORE'S PIONEER OF THE WEEK

Written by WCHS assistant coach Ben Matheny

DILLON HALEY

Dillon is a rising junior who has seen a great deal of playing time and started during his sophomore year. Dillon played offensive and defensive tackle last season and has grown tremendously as a player. Whenever he was needed last year, Dillon would step up and help his team, especially when the demand was difficult.

This offseason, Dillon has consistently been at all workouts and practices. More importantly, his work ethic has been impeccable. He is always giving full effort and never complains. While Dillon is one of the quieter young men on the team, his actions speak volumes.

Expectations are high this season for Dillon. His attitude and work ethic are setting him up for success. His is constantly working to become the best football player and teammate he can be. His presence will be a great attribute to the Pioneers this season.
