Damon responded with a two-run triple in the third, but Triple C Nursery couldn't sustain the offense against Supreme Building.

Grayson Todd put the game away with a two-run, inside-the-park home run in the fourth. Todd finished with two hits for Supreme Building, as did Owen McGee, Ledger Higgins and Walker Brady.

Garcia finished 3-for-3, while Bryce Majors, Moore and Kiptyn Medley – Tuesday's walk-off hero – had one hit apiece.

Damon, Martin and

Hayden Fults led Triple C Nursery with two hits apiece while Eastlan Green and Isaac Smith had one hit each.

In Friday's first game, Whitman, Todd, McGee, Medley, Higgins and Medley each had three hits to pile up runs against T&M Farms. Moore, Garcia and Brady had two hits each.

Braylon Burch, Brently Jones, Landyn Stuckie, Tucker Gann, Malachi Wilcher and Dylan Casey had hits in the loss for T&M Farms, which fell to 5-5.

The boys 6-8 tournament is set to start this week.

Womack Printing was only one game back in the standings, while the teams entered the night even at 2-2 in head-to-head matchups.

Trad Grizzle quickly made sure Womack would extend its lead, resuming the game - which picked up in the bottom of the second - by rocketing a two-out triple off the right-field fence. Leo Castenada scored on the play, giving Womack Printing a commanding lead.

The Brawlers tried to make a spirited comeback with two outs in the third. After Alec Johnson walked and scored to remove the goose egg on the scoreboard, Jarrod Scruggs blasted a two-out, two-run single up the middle to make it 12-3.

Scruggs was able to score on a wild pitch, as did Peyton Adams after drawing a walk and moving around the bags.

Time expired during the at-bat, leaving Beasley's needing to make up the big gap all in the third. Isaac Beasley and Kadin Tackett each walked to extend the game, but Alex Castenada shut the door.

Castenada came in and only needed to pitch to one batter, as he mowed down the batter in three pitches to end the game.

The outcome left both teams at 6-4, with Womack Printing claiming the edge in the season series. It should come in handy during this week's tournament, which will also feature Gary Steele Karate (3-7). The tournament schedule wasn't set at press time.
