The Will Jones and Ocie Goodson Jones Reunion will be at Midway CIC on Sun, June 24 @ 12 Noon. Please bring a covered dish.

Another Great Free Community Meal

Liberty Cumberland Presbyterian Church will be serving Another Great Free Community Meal on June 23 from 5-7pm. The meal will consist of hamburgers, hot dogs, baked beans, potato chips and cookies/brownies. Call 473-3813 no later than June 22 if you would like to have a meal delivered within city limits. Also, you may eat at the church of pick up and take home. The church is located at 317 Liberty Lane.

"The reason we are looking at the Civic Center is in order for us to evolve we need to secure a larger location so we can add more people to it," said CAC executive director Martha Phillips. "We are hoping to increase participation by 50 to 100 patrons."

A Children's Advocacy Center (CAC) fundraiser, last year's event attracted 225 individuals to Deer Path Farms. CAC's mission is to deliver exceptional services to victims of child abuse. Event patrons show their support for CAC as they help raise funds to support the cause.

McMinnville's Board of Mayor and Aldermen unanimously approved the request to provide the facility without charge on Sept. 27, 2018. It will be held in the gym.

Angels Autumn Fest usually features a guest speaker, occasionally recognizes someone as a "Children's Advocacy Guardian," and patrons enjoy a catered dinner.

If anyone suspects child abuse, call the Child Abuse Hotline at 1-877-237-0004, available 24 hours a day, seven days a week.

For more information about the event, CAC is located at 1350 Sparta Street and can be reached at 931-507-2386.

Angels Autumn Fest, held last year at Deer Path Farms, will be moved to McMinnville Civic Center this year and is scheduled for Sept. 27.

Jones faces fears

BY EMMA HOLMES

long time to warm up to the water before she slowly eased her way into the shallow end.

When Olivia was adopted from China, her mother said it looked like she hadn't taken a bath in a while, so much so that her little belly button was as black as coal. It's possible Olivia didn't like swimming because she was not used to feeling water on her skin.

One day this summer, Olivia came to her parents to ask if she could join the local swim team coached by Olympian Paige Northcutt. Her shocked parents agreed hoping she would learn to love the water.

Practice began and her mother would go for support. Olivia became weary when all her teammates jumped in the water without hesitation. She walked from the edge of the pool and sat beside her mother shaking all over and told her she could not jump in with the team.

Tanya calmed her down, but all of a sudden Olivia stood up and walked over to the water and got in. She said her teammates and coaches encouraged her.

Olivia overcame a fear that kept her from experiencing something she now loves to do.

Tanya says Olivia would not have ever jumped in without the help of coaches. They taught her how to swim safely and properly.

The support of her friends, team, and family caused her to push herself into something great and made her overcome a fear.

Olivia Jones, 11, has overcome her fear of the water and is now on McMinnville's swim team.

Unclaimed body

Cremation at county expense is only used when the department either actively or passively comes into possession of remains of deceased for which there is no readily determined next of kin and / or which are not claimed by any person.

Denney said attempts to find a family member have been unsuccessful.

Under the agreement, the funeral home accepts, cremates and returns the remains to Warren County for a modest charge provided that Warren County will deliver the body with the appropriate paperwork and indemnify the business against any claim that may be made.
