

Members of the Warren County High School football squad make their entrance to Nunley Stadium to the cheers and applause of the crowd of supporters. The team lost its opening game in Smithville, but is looking forward to a win against White County on Friday in Sparta. Margaret Hobbs photos

THREE CHEERS FOR PIONEERS

Coach Tom Moore fires up the crowd with positive words about the team and the many challenges facing them this season.

Community shows support for football teams

Football players of all ages were recognized at the pep rally, including members of the Little Pioneers 5-7-year-old team. Here youngsters, from left, Braylen Meeks, Ryder Hobbs, Kayden Pack, Timothy Blakely, Landen Dye and Joshua Goad cheer with the crowd.

Talented WCBS cheerleaders work tirelessly during the pep rally to show support for the Pioneers.

Dancer Leela Beaty has a blast as she represents her middle school dance team.

Members of the WCBS marching band present an entertaining program at football games, as well as the Pioneerettes. Here high-flying Pioneerette Bri Simmons does an aerial during a jazz routine.