The Warren County High School senior float makes an impressive entrance downtown during the annual Homecoming Parade. The Senior Express engine spewed smoke as two train cars filled with exuberant seniors chanted and cheered. The entry earned first place in the competition.

The sophomore class float plays off the movie "Lion King," with Mufasa and Pumbaa assisting the Pioneers in capturing a Shelbyville Eagle.

In a salute to the movie "Back to the Future," the junior float featured a DeLorean traveling up a ramp and shooting flames. The entry was followed by three groups of former Pioneer cheerleaders, athletes and Pioneerettes representing the past.

Pioneer Jake fries a Shelbyville Eagle on the float entry submitted by the freshman class featuring a cook stove emitting smoke.
