

Festival Hostess Princess and Court

Simmons loves to hunt, spending time at the river, driving tractors and helping on the farm. She is also a competitive dancer and teacher.

Her plans for her future include attending a college of fine arts of dance. She plans to further her career in the dance world.

"My favorite festival memory is my dad making me a small wagon filled with beautiful flowers and strawberries," recalled Simmons. "He pulled me every year," she added.

Simmons is most looking forward to this year's carnival and rides, but most of all the amazing food.

When asked how it feels to be a part of the 2018 Hostess Princess Court, Simmons said, "It is an honor to represent Humboldt. My roots run deep in this town. I have lived here all my life." "The most important thing is to be humble and gracious, taking every photo opportunity that comes my way; always embracing all the unforgettable memories," she noted.

3rd Maid Camryn Brown

Camryn Brown is this year's 3rd Maid in the 2018

Hostess Princess Court. She is also the daughter of Amy and Jeff Brown.

Brown is a 17-year-old senior at South Gibson County High School. At school, she is involved in many activities, including, beta club, HOSA club, D.A.R.E role model and Relay for Life team member. Brown is an honor roll student, ranking 18th in a class of 188 students.

When not involved in schools activities, Brown does not slow down. She has been a dance student at Bonnie's School of Dance for 15 years. She now teaches the younger students there. She is active in her church youth group and enjoys going on international mission trips. She teaches an Awana class for 3rd and 4th grade girls in her church as well.

Brown's plans for the future include furthering her education at Austin Peay State University where she will major in nursing. She aspires to be a NICU nurse.

When asked about her favorite festival memory, Brown recalled, "My favorite festival memory would have to be going and participating in the parade. I've rode floats with my preschool and dance studio. I have marched with the band in middle school and now I've got the amazing opportunity to be a part of the Hostess Princess Court."

Brown said she most looks forward to attending all of the events going on during festival week. She is eager to make everlasting memories during her senior year with amazing girls.

"I am so honored and ecstatic to be in the Hostess Princess Court. This is a once in a lifetime opportunity and I cannot wait for the busy week," Brown said when asked how it feels to be part of the 2018 Hostess Princess Court.

4th Maid Maddy Harris

Maddy Harris, 4th Maid in the Hostess Princess court, is the daughter of Jennifer and Shane Harris.

She is a 14-year-old freshman at South Gibson County High School. Her school activities include the tennis team, art club and beta club. She also enjoys being a part of her church youth group and working in children's church.

Harris said that her future plans include attending college, though she is right now undecided as to where she will attend.

Her favorite festival memory is when she rode through the parade on the Presbyterian Day School float when she was three and four years old.

When asked what she most looks forward to during festival week this year, Harris replied, "I look forward to attending the recipe contest, which I have participated in several times."

Harris said that it is an honor to be part of such a beautiful group of girls that get to represent Humboldt during the West Tennessee Strawberry Festival.
