

PRAYER BREAKFAST - Lasy year's Strawberry Festival Prayer Breakfast featured motivational speaker, Andy Morris.

Freeze to be keynote speaker at Prayer Breakfast, Sunday, May 6

Former head football coach Hugh Freeze will be the keynote speaker at this year's Strawberry Festival Prayer Breakfast. The Prayer Breakfast is slated for Sunday, May 7 at 8 a.m. in the Humboldt Medical Center's conference room. Advance tickets are required to attend.

Freeze has local ties to West Tennessee, coaching in neighboring Jackson, Tenn., eventually earning the head coaching position with Ole Miss in the SEC.

According to Wikipedia, Danny Hugh Freeze Jr. (born September 27, 1969) is an American football coach. He is a former head coach at the University of Mississippi. Freeze served as the head football coach at Lambuth University from 2008 to 2009 and at Arkansas State University in 2011. He was previously a successful high school football coach at Briarcrest Christian School in Memphis, Tennessee, where he coached Michael Oher and Greg Hardy. He would later follow both of them to the University of Mississippi.

Freeze attended Senatobia High School and the University of Southern Mississippi, from which he graduated in 1992 with a Bachelor of Science degree in mathematics and a minor in coaching and sports administration.
