

Meet the 81st West TN Strawberry

Hostess Princess Hadley Lindsey

Hadley Lindsey is this year's Hostess Princess. She is the daughter of Brad and Kristi Lindsey. Lindsey is also a 17-year-old senior at South Gibson County High School.

School activities for Lindsey include Best Buddies, peer tutoring and being a recipient of the ACT Benchmark award.

When not at school, Lindsey can be found working at Medina Flower and Gift or babysitting.

Her plans for the future include attending Middle Tennessee State University where she will major in special education.

Lindsey said her favorite festival memories include serving as Jr. Hostess Princess and singing the National Anthem at the horse show.

She most looks forward to participating in the opening ceremonies as that will be the beginning of her favorite week of the year.

When asked how it feels to be the 2018 Hostess Princess, Lindsey replied, "It is a dream come true! Every little girl in the Humboldt area dreams of wearing this crown."

1st Maid Logan Cloud

Logan Cloud, 1st Maid in the 2018 Hostess Princess Court, and daughter of Chuck and Christy Cloud, is a 17-year-old senior at Trinity Christian Academy.

Cloud's school activities include Spanish club, being a HOSA member, playing high school golf and participating in school plays.

When not in school she plays church league basketball, is a 12 year vocalist at Kincade Gooch Studio; is an active member at Fellowship Bible Church and is a volunteer at the Boys and Girls Club.

After graduation, Cloud plans to attend college at the University of Memphis where she will major in pre-health with plans to become a physician assistant.

Cloud said that her favorite festival memories include serving in the Junior Hostess Princess Court and doing cartwheels during the parade.

She is most looking forward to her opportunity to sing the National Anthem during opening ceremonies.

When asked how it feels to be a part of the 2018 Hostess Princess Court, Cloud responded, "I love being able to support Humboldt. I am honored to be a part of traditions that my family brought me into when I was a little girl."

2nd Maid Amanda Simmons

Amanda Nicole Simmons is 2nd Maid in the 2018 Hostess Princess court. She is the daughter of James and Angela Simmons.

Simmons is a 15-year-old sophomore at Gateway Christian School. Her school activities have seen her receive many awards, including the International Scholarship, Kids Artistic Revue Scholarship, NUVD Scholarship and the Revolution Scholarship. She has already accumulated 700 community service hours.
