

2017 Arts on Main is now Strawberry Market on Main

PAINTER - Dana M. Groff, Jr. is a Jackson, Tenn. artist. He has been painting as long as he can remember. His work is generally acrylics and mixed media with an occasional oil painting.

PRESIDENT - Jacque Hillman, artist and president of the Artisan Trail group for West Tennessee artist was on hand last year for the Arts on Main event May 11 and 12.

FOUNDER - Libby Lynch is a Humboldt resident, artist and supporter of the arts. She is the founder of Arts on Main and is responsible for organizing the event each year.

POLLY'S PEN - Paula Raglan is a Jackson, Tenn. artist working as Polly's Pen. She was at the first Strawberry Festival arts event, which was held outdoors. The wind was so damaging that year that she has not been back. She said she was grateful to be able to be indoors last year and looks forward to returning.
