include homecoming and the pep rallies. When asked about her greatest lesson learned while at HHS, Cole replied, "Know who your real friends are. Make sure you are organized."

Cedric Deadmon Jr.

Cedric Deadmon Jr. is the son of Sheila Ray and Cedric Deadmon. After graduation he will attend Jarvis Christian College on a basketball scholarship. While there he will major in sports medicine as well as working toward a minor in psychology. Playing basketball is his favorite HHS activity. Mr. Thomas is his favorite teacher. AP English is favorite class because of the conversations they have about society. Deadmon said that his fondest HHS memories include all of the events the seniors had at the end of the year. The greatest lesson he learned while at HHS is that not everyone is your friend and you have to stay focused at all times. When asked about his wish for those he leaves behind at HHS, Deadmon replied, "Just do good in school and there's always a way out. Make your family proud. Be successful."

Isha Taylor

Isha Taylor is the daughter of Cynthia Taylor. She plans to attend Jackson State University. Cheerleading and track both hold the spot for her favorite HHS activity. Taylor's favorite teacher is Mr. Ingram. Her favorite class' teacher is Ms. Naffziger because she taught them music and always had a positive attitude. When asked about her greatest lesson learned at HHS, Taylor replied, "Make it a great day or not; the choice is yours."

Destiny Taylor

Destiny Taylor is the daughter of Sherrona Taylor and Johnny Taylor. After graduation she plans to attend Austin Peay State University where she will major in sonography. Cheerleading is her favorite HHS activity. Mrs. Comer is her favorite teacher. Bridge Math is her favorite class because it taught her different things. Her fondest memory of HHS is her first day of high school four years ago. The greatest lesson learned while at HHS is that it is not about how smart you are. It's about how determined you can be. She wishes all of the underclassmen she leaves behind to be very successful.
