Mariah Horton

Mariah Horton is the daughter of Juanita Horton and Tobias Horton. She plans to attend a four year university and get her doctorate in physical therapy. Homecoming week is her favorite high school activity. Coach Lambert is her favorite teacher. She loved P.E. class because it helps keep you active.

Ka'Yvi Russell

Ka'Yvi Russell is the son of Latosca Russell and Vstoskia Pirtle. His plans after graduation include attending University of Austin Peay where he will major in computer science. His favorite HHS activity is football. His favorite teacher is Mr. Wiles. His favorite class is agricultural power and equipment because the instructor taught them how to work as a team to build new projects and fix the ones that were broken. His fondest HHS memory is competing against other grades and winning the homecoming wall. The greatest lesson learned at HHS is to never count yourself short and never settle for less always learn new things and the outcome will be the best. When asked about his wish for those he leaves behind at HHS, Russell said, "Never leave school without learning something. Stay focused but have a little fun while doing it."

Shelby Cook

Shelby Cook is the daughter of Helena Cook. After graduation she plans to attend Jackson State Community College where she will major in pre-physical therapy. Basketball is her favorite HHS activity. Ms. Comer is her favorite teacher. She most enjoyed Mr. Adams' class because he pushed her to try harder. When asked about her wish for those she leaves behind at HHS, Cook said, "Do your community service starting freshman year!"

Terrance (Tee) Pirtle

Terrance Pirtle is the son of Felecia Martin. He plans to attend Bethel University. His favorite activity at HHS is basketball. His favorite teacher is Mr. Ingram. He enjoys math because it comes naturally for him. Senior prank is his fondest HHS memory. Ironically, his greatest lesson learned at HHS is, "don't do pranks."
