

Jr. Lady Vikes on prowl for redemption season

BY AMBER ADAMS

The Humboldt Jr. Lady Vikings are optimistic about this year's season after coming off of a rough 1-17 season last year. Head coach Hannah Tate and assistant coach Annette Thomas have worked with the girls to improve their skills and are confident with the improvements they're seeing.

The ladies will be put to the test as they face a lot of the same opponents they did last year. Gibson County, South Gibson, Bradford, Crockett County, Trenton, Rutherford, Dyer and Milan are all in the Jr. Lady Vikings' district. These teams usually bring a strong squad as well as strong individual players and will be tough competition.

Vying for playing time will be Kaniyah

Davis, Ke'Lijah Brown, Janiyah Collins, Ta'Kyla Johnson, Kirsten Shepherd, Accountess Lewis, Shaniyah Brown, Kayla Martinez, Olivia Johnson, Jakyla Wade, Kennedy Mays, Simone Austin and Chazsity Taylor.

The Jr. Lady Vikings improvements are already showing on the court.

They won two of their first five games, which is an improvement from last year.

Humboldt will also participate in the GCMSAA tournament hosted by Milan on January 5,7,10 and 12 followed by the Blue Suede Tournament at Medina on January 19,21,24 and 26.

Coach Tate encourages the community to come out to the games and support the Jr. Lady Vikings and the basketball program as a whole.
