

Kindergarten...

The 2017-18 school year brought in many bright young minds from around the county. This year's kindergarten students have begun their journey to high school graduation.

After having been at school all year and learning many new things, these young students have put some serious thought in to what they want to be when they grow up and what it takes to be those things.

Students were asked the following questions:

What do I want to be when I grow up and why?

If you could have a SUPER POWER for a day, what would it be and why?

What is your favorite thing about school "OR" what is most exciting for you about moving on to FIRST GRADE?

Their answers are as follows:

Mrs. Pauline Williams' Class at McLain Attendance Center

Aidan Breland wants to be a cop when he grows up so he can help get all the bad people. He would like to be Superman for a day because he has laser eyes and he is cool.
