From Staff Reports
Thoughts of their time spent together in school, especially their final one as members of the Class of 2018, will fill the memories of members of this graduating class for much of their lives. But, for 11 members of the class, their legacies have been permanently enshrined at the school as the 2018 inductees into the GCHS Hall of Fame.
Tagg Creech, Kalyn Dial, Jenna Hillman, SaVannah Howard, Karleah Malone, Mystica Maxie, Hallie Meadows, Peyton Rounsaville, Holly Skaggs, Kinley Thornton and Meagan Whiddon are the members of the Class of 2018 selected for this prestigious honor.
To follow is information on each new inductee provided by the GCHS Yearbook Staff:

ISAAC TAGG CREECH
Tagg is without a doubt a Wildcat at heart. Lettering in multiple sports, Tagg's career at Greene County High School can not be summed up in a couple of sentences. Tagg is reliable and relentless. His legacy goes beyond the walls of Greene County High School. The impact he has made on our community will leave a lasting impression.

KALYN MELISSA DIAL
Kalyn is the definition of hard work. She exemplifies great character. She is trustworthy, hardworking, kind, and diligent. She always gets the job done. Kalyn's personality is contagious, and without question she has earned her success. Kalyn has a bright future ahead, and we could not be more proud.

JENNA DARYAN HILLMAN
Jenna is the type of student that all teachers adore. She is always engaged and prepared for whatever may come her way. Jenna is what every student should strive to be like. She adds intelligence to any discussion, and Greene County High School is a better place because of her.

SAVANNAH TAYLOR HOWARD
SaVannah is one of the most hard-working individuals you will ever meet. No task is too difficult for SaVannah. Her drive and inner strength will take her far in life. SaVannah has been very successful at Greene County High School, and her success will continue throughout the rest of her life.

KARLEAH LENISE MALONE
Karleah is one of a kind. The impact she has made on Greene County High School is immeasurable. Her personality can light up any room, and GCHS is fortunate to have had a student like her. Her success will continue throughout all her endeavors.

MYSTICA LEIGH MAXIE
Mystica displays determination in everything she does. She knows what she wants, and she is not afraid to do whatever is necessary to achieve her goals. Her drive has created many opportunities for her future endeavors. Mystica will continue to prevail wherever she goes next.

HALLIE MORGAN MEADOWS
Hallie is respected by both faculty and students at Greene County High School. Her career at Greene County High School has left a lasting legacy. Hallie is headstrong and unpredictable. She has the ability to bring laughter to any situation. Hallie's determination will keep her successful in all future paths.

PEYTON ELIZABETH ROUNSAVILLE
Peyton is the definition of class. Her character inside and outside the classroom ensured her the title of Hall of Fame. Peyton's success goes beyond Greene County High School, and her legacy as a role model to young girls will continue.

HOLLY MICHELLE SKAGGS
Holly is hardworking and determined. Her success earned, not given. She represents Greene County High School with class, and her character is infallible. We are proud to call her a member of the Greene County High School Hall of Fame

KINLEY MICHELLE THORNTON
Kinley is one of the kindest people anyone could have the pleasure of meeting. She carries herself with integrity and humbleness. She is a true Wildcat and has earned her

Hallie Meadows

Peyton Rounsaville

Holly Skaggs

Kinley Thornton

place in the Hall of Fame. She never meets a stranger and her passion for Greene County High School will leave a lasting legacy.

MEAGAN ELIZABETH WHIDDON
Meagan is a leader. During her time at GCHS, Meagan has had the opportunity to represent not only Greene County but also the entire state of Mississippi. Her immense dedication will continue to create success wherever she may go.

Meagan Whiddon

Aim High!

Wishing our graduates the height of success and good fortune.
