Dear Santa,
This year for Christmas I want new shoes (size 3). A soccer ball, and if you would not mind a drone. I know I asked for this last year, but this is my "lucky" year. Can I please have a real laptop that is considered mine? A Mississippi State jersey, a scrapbook for my photos. Thank you for all your love and care. I hope I wake up with you standing there.
Love, Elizabeth Clark

Dear Santa,
I have been very good this year just so I could get on the good list and not on the bad list. I really want you to know the only thing I want for Christmas this year is a hoverboard. I told my nana and mama that I would rather get one thing and that was it. This year, I also want my nana to have something because she does a lot of work taking care of me and my sister and brother. SO if you could get her a new tv or something that she would like. She might even want a robot vacuum cleaner, so she wouldn't have to do quite so much work anymore.
Love, Emma-Claire Parker

From the Desk of Mrs. Brenda Moody
MCLAIN ATTENDANCE CENTER

Dear Santa,
Well Santa, it's me again, Mrs. Moody. Yes Santa I am still here and hopefully within the next year or two I will retire and get a part-time job helping you out at Christmas time delivering all those presents to the good little girls and boys.

Another year has gone by so fast and I am here once more with a new bunch of students. I told them I knew you personally and I was writing to let you know that some were good and some were bad this year. I told them they had a little time to straighten up before your arrival if they've been too bad. I am once again blessed to have such a loving group of students full of ambition, very energetic, and loving. Did I mention the oh so many interesting stories about their parents and the wonderful things they say and do(smile).

Santa I want you to be sure to bring my students some new crayons and not leave off a single thing from their list they want you to bring them because they really are very special to me.

Parents I want to thank you for allowing me the opportunity to teach your child and hear the wonderful things they can come up with. I hope Santa can help out with some of this stuff they are asking for.

Santa if you and your elves can stop for a brief moment, say a prayer for our nation and this whole wide world. With the many elves that you have, I'm sure that prayers will be heard and they shall be answered, because with much prayer comes much power and power along with all these prayers can change things.

I want you to fill the homes with not only joy but with love also. Love is one of the greatest commandments of them all and without love there's nothing, no peace, joy or happiness. Because Jesus is the reason for this season. He is the true meaning of CHRISTMAS. Jesus said love one another as I have also loved you. Fill the season with love and lets be more Christ like. I want my home to be blessed and fill it with love and joy. I'm blessed to have someone in my life that truly loves me. I am blessed to have a family that loves me and to work at a place that has such a caring staff and people that care so much about one another. It is so wonderful to work with a wonderful group of people that really care and love one another as a family. Yes, here at McLain Attendance Center we are one big happy family that care and love one another. When one hurts, we all hurt, when one cries, we all cry. That's what makes this school so special, the love that it holds. What more could a person ask for.

Let us not forget the real reason for the season, as we should celebrate Jesus everyday of our lives. Be Blessed and have a very Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year. I wish everyone all over the world much Joy, Peace, and Love.

And Santa will you please bring my husband Alvin a new hunting truck.

Your Friend,
Mrs. Brenda Moody
