

-Jayson Knight

Festivalgoers scope out the classic rides at the Fifth Annual Tuttle FOP Car Show last year during the Ice Cream Festival. This year's festival will be held Saturday, June 16.

Car show the cherry on top for Tuttle Ice Cream Festival

By Jayson Knight
Staff Writer

Tuttle's Sixth Annual Ice Cream Festival Car Show is scheduled to return to the annual festival, which is set for Saturday, June 16 at First Baptist Church in Tuttle, located at 14 Southwest Second Street. The car show is set to begin at 8:30 a.m. with prizes being awarded at 2 p.m.

The kid-friendly car show will feature door prizes, a 50-50 pot, and live entertainment by the 89th Street Band.

The car show was originally created by former Tuttle mayor, and automobile aficionado, Bobby Williams. Last year, however, he handed the keys over to the Tuttle Fraternal Order of Police which Cruise on over!

WHAT: Tuttle's Sixth Annual Ice Cream Festival Car Show

WHERE: Tuttle's First Baptist Church, located at 14 Southwest Second Street

WHEN: June 16 starting at 8:30 a.m.

has elected to keep the car show's legacy running.

Tuttle detective Shana Berryhill is a spearhead for the car show. She and her auto-enthusiast husband Chuck Berryhill have helped foster interest in the Tuttle FOP Ice Cream Festival car show by attending many other car shows, even leaving some with trophies and prizes for their vehicles.

See CAR SHOW, page 12

NEW POOL AND HOT TUBS
COMING SOON! RATES STARTING
AT $1295!

Whispering Creek

SIMPLIFIED LIVING • ACTIVE LIFESTYLE

WhisperingCreekRetirement.com

CALL FOR MOVE IN SPECIALS!

Now Leasing!

820-4058

- Cottage Homes for Rent • Gated Entry & Security Cameras
- Clubhouse • Storm Shelter • Walking Trails & Fountains
- Fitness Center • Socials & Activities • Age 55+

On County Line Rd. Just North of SW 59th

5712 Goldfinger Road • Oklahoma City, OK 73173