

MUSTANG:

-Traci Chapman

Mustang Public Library hosts a variety of programs geared for children, youth and adults.

From Page 14

memberships and more is available online at <http://www.cityofmustang.org/parksrec/page/general-information>.

Aquatic Center

With summer comes the opening of Mustang's aquatic center, which opened May 25. Featuring not just lap lanes and extensive children's area, the center offers a sand volleyball court and "beach front," slide and concessions stand.

Throughout June and July, Monday night swim is open for families. For a cost of $3 per person or $10 for a family, families can enjoy the warm evenings at the pool from 7:30 p.m. until 9:30 p.m.

The aquatic center is located at 1201 N. Mustang Road and can be contacted by calling 405-376-9049. It is open through July 11:30 a.m. until 6 p.m. Monday through Saturday and 1 p.m. to 6 p.m. on Sundays from Aug. 1-8, hours are 1 p.m. until 6 p.m.; beginning Aug. 11, hours are 1 p.m. – 6 p.m. on weekends.

More information can also be found on the city of Mustang website at www.cityofmustang.org.

Mustang Public Library

Mustang Library's signature summer event, its Summer Reading program, kicked off May 25, but that's just a start for activities and events offered by the facility.

Programs geared for children, youth, adults and family are held throughout the summer, including Thursday family performances, held weekly at 2 p.m.; tween programs, beginning at 11 a.m. each Thursday, Tuesday elementary school programs, the Wednesday Crazy 8s Math Club and more.

"We truly have something for everyone, and we're always adding more," library director Julie Slupe said.

Information about library events and activities, as well as general services, is available online at <http://www.mustanglibrary.org/library>.

Mustang Senior Center

Mustang Senior Center offers a variety of activities every weekday throughout the year, as well as a combined birthday/anniversary dinner, held the first Saturday of each month. Card games are regularly held Tuesday afternoons and can be found going on much of the time, Wisner said, while art classes, haircut appointments, health and exercise sessions and more are regularly scheduled.

Seniors also have the chance to take several trips each month, ranging from museums and music venues to dinners, casino visits and volunteer opportunities. In addition to Wisner, senior center director, and her staff, Senior Supporters raise funds and develop activities throughout the year.

Mustang Senior Center is open from 8 a.m. until 9 p.m. Monday, 8 a.m. to 10 p.m. Tuesday and 8 a.m. until 5 p.m. Wednesday through Friday.

More information can be obtained by calling the center at 405-376-1297 or going online to <http://www.cityofmustang.org/seniorcenter>.

Special Events

Mothers and sons will have a special evening June 22, when the Mom and Son Pirate Party takes place.

Mustang Fire Department's annual Freedom Celebration will begin at 6:30 p.m. June 30 in Wild Horse Park – a party that has gone on for almost 49 years.

Movie in the Park has already begun, with the next entry – Peter Rabbit – set for June 16. Food trucks and activities begin at 6 p.m., with the movie set to start at dusk.