Del City put up some big numbers offensively last year. And with another year of experience on the field and with the coaching staff, the Eagles could fly higher in 2018.

Quarterback Quinlan Gather returns after starting the final six games last season. The junior threw for 1,600 yards and 16 touchdowns last year and has continued to progress this offseason.

"He has had an unbelievable offseason and summer with 7-on-7," coach Mike Dunn said. "He's taken ownership of the offense and is firing on all cylinders."

Ganther will have some good options down field including one of the state's top receivers in Jeff Foreman. The 6-foot-1, 190 pound receiver caught 49 passes for 1,110 yards and 15 touchdowns last year. Foreman, a three-sport athlete, has received multiple DI offers and recently verbally committed to Arkansas State.

Junior Colin Liesinger will also play a big role after coming on late last season.

"He is our do-it-all receiver," Dunn said. "There are a couple of guys that are faster than him and bigger than him, but Colin knows how to get open and if the ball is near him, he'll catch it."

Speedsters Keyshon Murray and Marquell Lennox will also help at receiver.
