PIGS IN THE PARK

Saturday, Oct. 6 will be a busy day at Harrah Heritage Park with food, fun, fellowship, entertainment for all ages and bargains galore. The annual Pigs in the Park and a wide assortment of other activities will be available that day from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. Highlight is the BBQ Smoke-Off competition with several of the area's finest chefs competing for prizes.

And while judges will determine the winners in the competition, the public is the real winner with the opportunity to sample and compare all the different meats.

BLUEGRASS FESTIVAL

The annual Bluegrass Festival

will be going along side the other festivities at Harrah's amphitheatre.

A wide variety of talented acts will make the lineup ensuring for hours of quality and free entertainment.

All the fun will be hosted on the grounds of Harrah Heritage Park and Amphitheater located at 1374 N. Church Ave. in Harrah, just 20 miles east of Oklahoma City.

If you are interested in being an exhibitor or food vendor at the annual Market in the Park, please contact Patty Coleman, City of Harrah, 454-2951 or email marketinthepark@yahoo.com for complete details and to obtain your application.
