parades in the state, starting at 10 a.m. on Main Street in Yukon. Stretching Historic Route 66, the parade will include Czech dancers, Oklahoma Czech Royalty Pageant contestants, local businesses and civic and youth groups.

After the parade, festivities begin in the Oklahoma Czech Building on 5th Street and Cedar, where festival goers will find a variety of family entertainment throughout the day including polka music, dancing, carnival rides, a petting zoo and the annual favorite craft show with more than 150 booths.

Traditional Czech food will also be available for purchase, including kolaches, klobasy sandwiches and bread.

At 4 p.m. winners of the parade will be announced and the 2018-2019 Oklahoma Czech-Slovak Royalty will be crowned, which includes the Queen, Jr. Queen, Princess, and Prince.

The festival concludes with the Royalty Coronation Ball at the historical Yukon Czech Hall located at 205 N. Czech Hall Road. The public is invited to dance the night away to the music of the Masopust and Bohemian Knights bands.
