

Lenoir-Rhyne's Suddreth named AstroTurf SAC Women's Basketball Player Of The Week

Taylorsville Junior led the Bears to consecutive victories last week

Rock Hill, S.C. – Lenoir-Rhyne University's Madi Suddreth has been named the South Atlantic Conference Women's Basketball Player of the Week, league officials announced today.

Suddreth, a junior forward from Taylorsville, N.C., averaged 13.0 points and 4.5 rebounds in leading the Bears to a pair of South Atlantic Conference victories over Catawba (61-56) and Mars Hill (81-46) last week. In the upset victory over the Indians on the road on Wednesday, Suddreth led all scorers with 20 points on 10-of-15 shooting and pulled down seven rebounds. A preseason all-league selection, Suddreth leads the team in scoring (14.4), rebounding (7.1) and blocked shots with 20 so far this year.

Lenoir-Rhyne (14-11, 8-9) remained at home to take on No. 21 Wingate (19-3, 13-2) on Wednesday in a South Atlantic Conference showdown at Shuford Memorial Gymnasium. The contest was also the Bears' annual Play 4Kay Day.

ACHS Swimmers set school records at NCHSAA Regional Meet February 3

By D.N. PENNELL, Jr.

The Alexander Central Swim Team had a successful day at the NCHSAA 3A West Regional on Saturday, February 3, at the Mecklenburg Aquatics Center.

On the day, three new school records were set in women's action and one men's relay team recorded its best time by four seconds.

Senior Jaycie Knight posted new school records in the 100-yard backstroke and the 100-yard butterfly. In the backstroke, Knight posted a time of 1:02.25 for the new school mark. Her time of 1:05.39 in the butterfly set a new school mark in that event.

Knight was also part of the school's 200-yard medley relay team which set a new ACHS record with a time of 2:09.67. She was joined by Casey Talley, Sydney Farmer, and Hallie Reese on the school-record team.

In men's action, the 200-yard freestyle team of Tyler Burgess, Kyle Harper, Hayden Seagle, and Jeremiah Moretz took four seconds off their personal best time with a 1:44.62. The team is now five seconds off the ACHS record in the event.

Bethlehem Baptist Proverbs 17:22 Night, Chili Cook-Off set Feb. 25

It is often said that "laughter is the best medicine," and it's true! Laughter releases stress, improves your mood, boosts immunity, and can even relieve pain. In Proverbs 17:22, the Bible says: "A cheerful heart is good medicine, but a broken spirit saps a person's strength."

Bethlehem Baptist Church is taking that scripture seriously and invites you to an evening of laughter on Sunday, February 25, 2018. The second annual "Proverbs 17:22 Night & Chili Cook-Off" will be held in the church fellowship hall beginning at 4 p.m.

a program of humor, music, and skits, as well as a little fun and tasty competition as they sample entries in the Chili Cook-Off.

Getting into the building may look a little confusing due to construction, but just follow the signs to park behind the building. Entrances from the parking area are to the far left and far right. Guest parking is available near the building, and greeters will welcome you just inside the door.
