Clive Pinnock Speaker at Audubon Everglades

The Audubon Everglades monthly meeting and lecture will feature “The Delaware Bay Connection: The Red Knot and Horseshoe Crab” by Clive Pinnock, local Naturalist and developer of the Bird of the Month list. The meeting will be held Tuesday, July 10 Light refreshment will be served at 6:30 p.m with meting and lecture beginning at 7 p.m. The program is free and open to the public.

As a native of the Caribbean Island of Jamaica, Clive Pinnock has been passionate about nature since childhood and has nurtured a keen interest in marine and avian studies, while developing his ability to recognize birds by song/calls as well as by field identification. With a bachelor's degree from The City College of New York and an associate's degree in Business Management from Taylor Business College, Pinnock worked as a Wildlife Biologist with the National Park

Clive Pinnock

Service for 15 years, after previous work at Jamaica Bay Wildlife Refuge in New York and Glen Canyon National Recreation Area in Arizona.

He also worked for Palm Beach County Parks and Recreation as the Manager of Okeetheelee Nature Center for 16 years. There he established several programs and exhibits in Marine Science, Raptor Ecology, Science for Seniors, Deer Management, and Gopher Tortoise Monitoring and participated in annual bird surveys. He has also participated in annual community events such as Everglades Day, Earth Day, NatureScaping, and Dark Sky throughout his 16-year tenure with Palm Beach County. He is currently an active member of the Florida Marine Science Educators Association (fmsea.org), a group committed to educating Florida residents about their precious marine resources.

Pinnock is currently the Bird Keeper at Lion Country Safari, where he oversees the care of Caribbean Flamingos, Southern Ground Hornbills, Loriekeets, and and Budgies. He is also working with other Lion Country Safari staff to establish a wild bird monitoring program. Finally, as a member of Audubon Everglades, Pinnock has served on the Board of Directors and currently leads field trips. He also develops the Bird of the Month list and with his wife Celecia, writes the monthly bird articles and gives the bird presentations at the monthly meetings.

This month he will also speak about the July Bird of the Month, the Red Knot.

Programs are held at the FAU Pine Jog Environmental Education Center, 6301 Summit Blvd., West Palm Beach.
