LWGF Women's Club Visits Museum

By Helen Vogt Greene

The Historical Museum of Lake Worth located upstairs at the City Hall Annex, 414 Lake Avenue was pleased to share the new renovations with members of the Executive Board of the Lake Worth General Federation (GWFC) of Women's Club. The Lake Worth General Federation (GWFC) of Women's Club's were early donors and are continued supporters of the Museum.

June Evans, President, Karen Hakala, and Marlene Glass were especially pleased with the placement of the unique very large 'flipper' which was donated in honor and memory of Watson B. Duncan, III.

The 'flipper', which is designed to hold many 8 x 10 photos, brings into memory the gifts that Duncan brought to the Women's Club and the Lake Worth community as a professor at what is now Palm Beach State College.

The Duncan Theatre on the Lake Worth campus is named in his memory.

His wife, Honey, who because of illness was not able to attend the meeting, is a member of the Executive Board. Honey, joining in 1981, holds the honor of being the LW's Women's

LW Kiwanis Now Accepting Donations for Bikes

The Lake Worth Kiwanis Club in partnership with the City of Lake Worth has embarked on their annual project to provide brand new bicycles to as many of our local children as possible. The Bike GiveAway will be held during the Holiday Fest in the Cultural Plaza in downtown Lake Worth on Saturday, Dec. 15 starting at Noon.

Neighbors, businesses and other organizations can contribute to this effort by sponsoring the cost of one unassembled bicycle for $70 or two for $100. By purchasing the bicycles unassembled, Kiwanis inflates the purchasing power in hopes that no child is left disappointed when the free drawing is concluded. Donations in any amount are gratefully accepted and help is always appreciated when the bicycles are assembled ahead of time.

Make checks out to Lake Worth Kiwanis, P.O. Box 1048, Lake Worth, FL 33460 or pay online at www.graymockingbird.com and click on the donate button located in upper left corner, in message section note bicycles.

For more information, contact Brian Kirsch at 561-246-0148.
