

Spencer County 4-H 10-Year Members

Jessica Bertke

Claire Brinkman

Justin DeFur

Audra Dilger

Devon Gogel

Teagon Gogel

Emma Goodrich

Cody Hagedorn

Kennedy Helms

Slade Hoffman

Ingrid Kern

Jacob Luebbehusen

Jessica Bertke, daughter of Dave and Ruth Berke, is a member of the St. Meinrad 4-H Club. Her main projects are recycling and miscellaneous crafts. Her favorite 4-H memory was winning Grand Champion on her create-a-mix project. Outside of 4-H, her activities include Beta Club, Fellowship of Christian Athletes, Heritage Hills Dance Marathon and volleyball. In the fall, Jessica plans to attend University of Southern Indiana and major in nursing.

Claire Brinkman, daughter of Wayne and Susan Brinkman, is a member of the Mariah Hill 4-H Club. Her main project is scrapbooking. Her favorite 4-H memory is being a 4-H camp counselor for four years and meeting her best friend at camp. Outside of 4-H, her activities include Optimist Club, Heritage Hills Dance Marathon, Student Council, National Honor Society, Fellowship of Christian Athletes, Peers Educating Peers, Beta Club, D.A.R.E role model, serving as a Eucharistic minister at St. Francis of Assisi Parish, and being on the basketball (four years), softball (three years), and volleyball (two years) teams. In the fall, Claire plans to attend Purdue University to double major in elementary education and special education.

Justin DeFur, son of Joe and April DeFur, is a member of the Richland West 4-H Club. His main projects are sports fishing and woodworking. His favorite 4-H memory is creating woodworking projects with his granddad. Outside of 4-H, his activities include basketball (four years), soccer (four years), cross country (four years), track (four years), Key Club, Fish and Game Club, and Spirit Club. In the fall, Justin plans to attend Oakland City University and participate on the cross country team with an undecided major.

Audra Dilger, daughter of Keith and Dana Dilger, is a member of Mariah Hill Boys and Girls 4-H Club. Her main project is recycling. Her favorite 4-H memory is coming up with creative project ideas for the fair. Outside of 4-H, her activities include Natural Helpers, Optimist Club, Girl Scouts, and being an elementary tutor and after-school daycare assistant. In the fall, Audra plans to attend The Salon Professional Academy and become a licensed esthetician.

Devon Gogel, son of Rick and Devona Gogel, is a member of the Chrisney Clovers 4-H Club. His projects include poultry and horses. His favorite 4-H memory is 4-H camp and getting to go canoeing. Outside of 4-H, he participates in track and field. In the fall, Devon plans to attend IUPUI and study computer engineering.

Teagon Gogel, son of Mike and Brenda Gogel, is a member of the Mariah Hill 4-H Club. His main project was showing poultry at the fair every year. Outside of 4-H he is involved in FFA. Teagon plans to join the United States Coast Guard.

Emma Goodrich, daughter of David and Shelly Goodrich, is a member of the Lucky Clovers 4-H Club. Her projects include photography and home environment. Her favorite 4-H memory was the 2017 4-H Fair when she and her family stopped at every booth, visited all the animals and watched the tractor pull together. She remembers thinking, "What's a perfect summer without the 4-H Fair?" Outside of 4-H, her activities include the Heritage Hills Riley Dance Marathon, choir, color guard, Academic Bowl team, Renaissance Club, Beta Club, National Honors Society, Fellowship of Christian Athletes, Voice, and S.A.A.D. She also likes to volunteer at her church, Santa Claus United Methodist. In the fall, Emma plans to attend the University of Southern Indiana to major in art with an emphasis in interactive media design.

Cody Lee Hagedorn, son of Phil and JoAnn Hagedorn, is a member of the Dale Boys and Girls Club. His main project was showing swine all 10 years. His favorite 4-H memory was winning beginner showmanship the first year he showed swine. Outside of 4-H, his activities include serving at Saint Francis of Assisi Parish and working on the farm with his dad and brother. Cody plans on working after high school.

Kennedy Helms, daughter of Paul and Amy Tempel and Warren and Karen Helms, is a member of the Dale Boys and Girls 4-H Club. Her main projects include photography, swine and junior leaders. Her favorite 4-H memory includes participating in the swine show with all her friends. Outside of 4-H her activities include swimming, Beta Club, National Honor Society, Natural Helpers, Peers Educating Peers, and being

(Continued on page 4)