Garden Fun Contest

Found anything interesting while walking around in your yard or garden? Enter it in the Garden Fun Contest! This competition will be held Saturday, June 23, with check-in time from 10-11:30 a.m. and judging beginning at noon. The contest is open to all — young, old and everyone in-between! All live critters (slugs, garden spiders and grasshoppers, for example) must be in cages or containers and can be picked up after 2 p.m. the day of the contest.

Prizes will be awarded, and with 25 classes and categories, chances are you'll win something! Classes for the contest include tallest corn stalk, heaviest tomato, vegetable most resembling a human face (no names please!) and longest snake's skin, just to name a few!

Kiddie Tractor Pull
