

Spencer County 4-H 10-Year Members

Matthew Newton

Brianna Rahman

Brianna Scherer

Kylie Shourds

Nolan Snyder

Allyson Southwood

Seth Thomas

Elijah Vance

Daniel Yeager

(Continued from page 3)

on the Heritage Hills Dance Marathon executive committee. In the fall, Kennedy plans to attend Indiana University and major in biology.

Slade Hoffman, son of Keyin and Beth Hoffman, is a member of the St. Meinrad 4-H Club. His projects include models and archery. His favorite 4-H memory is going to 4-H camp. Outside of 4-H, his activities include swimming and diving (four years), track and field (four years), cross country (four years), Student Council, and he is a server and sacristan at St. Boniface. In the fall, Slade is planning on becoming an EMT.

Ingrid Kern, daughter of Joseph and Melanie Kern, is a member of Mariah Hill Boys and Girls Club. Her projects include cake decorating, photography, and scrapbooking. Her favorite 4-H memory is participating in the "Anything Goes" contest with her friends and family for many years. Outside of 4-H, her activities include cross country, track and field, National Honor Society, St. Henry's youth group, Student Council, and Optimist Club. In the fall, Ingrid plans on attending University of Southern Indiana to major in nursing.

Jacob E. Luebbehusen, son of Dennis and Rose Luebbehusen, is a member of the St. Meinrad 4-H Club. His projects include aerospace, table tennis, construction toys, models, poultry and collections. His favorite 4-H memory is going to 4-H camp.

An Eagle Scout, he also ran track and field (four years) and played tennis (four years). In the fall, Jacob plans to attend Western Kentucky University to major in marketing.

Matthew Newton, son of Bob and Sherry Newton, is a member of the Richland East 4-H Club. His projects include gardening and swine. His favorite 4-H memory is playing mud volleyball. Outside of 4-H, Matthew plays football.

Brianna Rahman, daughter of Brian and Tina Rahman, is a member of the Mariah Hill 4-H Club. Her projects include foods, swine, and scrapbooking. Her favorite 4-H memory was going to the Indiana State Fair Youth Leadership Conference and getting to meet fellow 4-H members from all over Indiana. She got to participate in service projects and explore the State Fair while there. Outside of 4-H, her activities include Student Council and Book Club, serving as swim team manager and she is an executive member of the Heritage Hills Dance Marathon. She also volunteers at Memorial Hospital. In the fall, Brianna plans to attend Purdue University and study pre-pharmacy.

Brianna Scherer, daughter of David and Lana Scherer, is a member of the Spencer County 4-H Cloggers Club. Her main projects are beef and consumer clothing. Her favorite memory is when she received Grand Champion on her heifer. Outside of 4-H, her activities include color guard, archery, Spirit Club, Key Club, cheerleading, winter guard, performing in the plays at South Spencer, swimming, and Art Club. In the fall, Brianna plans to attend OCTC and be a joint student with Western Kentucky University where she will complete her degree in marketing.

Kylie Shourds, daughter of Jason and Tammy Shourds, is a member of Spencer County 4-H Cloggers Club. Her main projects are clogging, create-a-mix, and fine arts. Her favorite 4-H memory is clogging at the state fair and spending time with friends in Indy. Outside of 4-H her activities include soccer, basketball, track and field, Academic Team and being Student Council President, American Red Cross Blood Drive coordinator at South Spencer High School, yearbook editor, and Art Club co-president. She is also a member of the IHSAA Student Advisory Committee. In the fall, Kylie plans to attend the University of Evansville and major in psychology.

Nolan Snyder, son of Kerry and Vickie Snyder, is a member of the Fulda 4-H Club. His projects include chess, vet science, geology, wildlife, and aquatic science. His favorite 4-H memory is performing at 4-H round-up and the State Fair with the Indiana State 4-H Chorus. Outside of 4-H, his activities include high school choir and being choir accompanist, organist at St. Boniface Catholic Church and St. Isidore Parish, Optimist Club, Academic Bowl, Spell Bowl, National Beta Club, and National Honor Society. In the fall, Nolan plans to attend Indiana University, Jacobs School of Music and major in organ performance.

Allyson Southwood, daughter of Steve and Cheryl Southwood, is a member of the Huff Township Community Clovers 4-H Club. Her projects include woodworking. Her favorite 4-H memory is playing mud volleyball with her friends. Outside of 4-H, her activities include golf, winter guard, choir, kayaking, and her church youth group. In the fall, Allyson plans to attend VUJC to study business administration.

Seth Thomas, son of Kevin and Jenny Thomas, is a member of Lamar Lucky Clovers 4-H Club. His projects are photography, table tennis, chess, goats, junior leaders, and dairy cows. His favorite 4-H memory is wrestling with Brian Peters at 4-H camp. Outside of 4-H, his activities include choir, performing in Heritage Hills musicals, Student Council, Jr. Optimist Club, National Honor Society, Beta Club, BPA, Natural Helpers, youth group, and he was homecoming king. In the fall, Seth plans to attend Belmont University and study commercial music and then pursue a career as a country music artist.

Elijah Vance, son of Joe and Andie Vance, is a member of the Lamar Lucky Clovers 4-H Club. His projects include sheep and "It's Your Project". His

(Continued on page 5)