

Young Ambassadors (Grades 3-5)

Quinn Keller is the daughter of Nicholas and Tammy Keller. She attends school at Nancy Hanks. In 4-H she has learned of the different kinds of circuits in electricity and gotten to perform experiments to learn about projects. She has been a part of the Destination Imagination team at her school, tutors other students, and at her church sings in the choir and is an altar server. Quinn likes going to plays and performing in them, and she enjoys playing with her family.

Kenley Bell is the daughter of Amanda and Matt Bell. She attends school at Nancy Hanks. In 4-H, she enjoyed learning about cake decorating, and she also likes meeting new people and experiencing new things. She is a member of student council, the Kindness Committee, Destination Imagination, and she also performed in the school's Alice in Wonderland play. Kenley's hobbies include basketball, piano, softball, watching Purdue men's basketball, making cakes, drawing, art and doing crafts.

Dalton Fetter is the son of Tim and Jodi Fetter. He attends school at Nancy Hanks. Some of the benefits he says he's gotten from being in 4-H are getting to represent his community, making many friends and learning a lot from the projects he's done. He is a member of the Mariah Hill 4-H Club and Cub Scout Pack 102, is a candle bearer at St. Meinrad Catholic Church, and he also plays, football, basketball and baseball. Dalton's hobbies include working on the farm with his dad, target shooting and working with his model farm.

Kendall Lloyd is the daughter of Tim and Tara Lloyd. She attends school at St. Bernard. Because of 4-H she has made new friends, learned to cook and sew and she gets to spend more time with her calf, Sally. She cheers and plays basketball for her school and also serves and cantors at her church. Kendall enjoys being on a competitive cheer team, which she says has taught her the importance of being on a team.

Samantha Dilger is the daughter of Nathan and Michelle Dilger. She attends school at Nancy Hanks. Some of the benefits she says she's gotten from being in 4-H include feeling
