

FALL FEST QUEEN CANDIDATES

Carly Sabelhaus

Carly Sabelhaus, of Santa Claus, is the 18-year-old daughter of Brian and Jacquie Sabelhaus. A senior at Heritage Hills, she stands 5'4" and has blonde hair and blue eyes. She serves as senior class secretary and is a member of Student Council, BETA, Fellowship of Christian Athletes, Pep Club, Natural Helpers, and the soccer and tennis teams. She attends St. Francis Catholic Church and helps with both Special Olympics track and field and softball. Her hobbies include soccer, tennis, reading, spending time with her dog Cooper, hanging out with her family and friends, and running with her dad. After graduating, she plans to attend either WKU or USI and pursue a degree in elementary education to become a teacher. She is sponsored by Lori's Day Spa.

Cassandra Maddelynn Beier, of Mariah Hill, is the 16-year-old daughter of Kevin and Carrie Beier. A junior at Heritage Hills, she stands 5'7" and has blonde hair and blue eyes. She is a member of the school choir and participates in theater. An in-home babysitter for two children, she enjoys singing and songwriting, drawing, astrology and photography. Her career goal is to someday become a flight or trauma nurse. She is sponsored by her family.

Janna Nicole Heneisen, of Tennyson, is the 18-year-old daughter of Randy and Deanna Heneisen. A senior at Heritage Hills, she stands at 5'3" and has blonde hair and blue eyes. She participates in the school's drama productions and is a member of the Yearbook staff, Student Council, and Beta Club. She is also on the honor roll. An active member of 30 Hour Famine, she performs community service in both Spencer and Warrick counties, helps out at her church in the nursery, served as volunteer teacher at Bible school, and she works at Holiday World as a sweeper. Her hobbies include reading books, volunteering, listening to music, traveling, and writing in her spare time. Her special interests include photography, poetry, Anne Frank and foster care. After graduating, she plans to attend Ivy Tech and USI to acquire her bachelor's degree in social work. She is sponsored by Lincoln Amphitheatre.

Cassandra Beier

Jenna Nicole Norrick, of Evanston, is the 15-year-old daughter of Lucas and Bethany Norrick. A sophomore at Heritage Hills, she stands at 5'8" and has blonde hair and green eyes. She is a member of the track team, soccer team, FFA, and Project Lead the Way Engineering. She attends Santa Claus United Methodist Church, where she helps in the nursery/children's department, serves as junior counselor during elementary summer camps, and also works in the camp kitchen. She enjoys sketching and painting, listening to music, reading, being outdoors and spending time with her friends and family. On track to graduate with an Academic Honors diploma, she plans to eventually attend IUPUI to pursue a degree in biomedical engineering. She is sponsored by Jasper Gift Basket and Popcorn Co.

Janna Heneisen

Kenley Dawn Mulzer, of Santa Claus, is the 15-year-old daughter of Ken and DeNae Mulzer. A sophomore at Heritage Hills, she stands 5'6" and has blonde hair and hazel eyes. She is a member of Beta Club and Fellowship of Christian Athletes, is in the top 10% of her class and is also on the honor roll. Active in the youth group at Santa Claus Methodist Church, she serves on the leadership team of the youth service, Rooted, at the church. She also volunteers at Feed My Starving Children every fall. Her hobbies include soccer, dancing, running, playing guitar and helping her mom in the kitchen. Her future plans are to attend Grace College to study biology so that she can go to medical school and become a dermatologist. She is sponsored by her parents.

Kiersten Emma Schuler, of Santa Claus, is the 16-year-old daughter of Brett Schuler and Eric and Tonya Cross. A junior at Heritage Hills, she stands 5'6" and has blonde hair and blue eyes. She is a member of Student Council, Beta Club, FCA, Optimist Club, and soccer and track teams. She also serves as one of the four treasurers for her class. Having earned a position on the summa cum laude honor roll, she has attended the Top 10% banquet at school the past two years. During study hall, she volunteers as a teacher's aide and has also taken out the trash for the lunch ladies. An employee at Holiday World for the last three summers, she is an active member of Santa Claus United Methodist Church, where she is part of the leadership team that introduced a new service called Rooted to help address problems today's youth face. She also helps in the church's children's ministry and attends the Feed My Starving Children event. Additionally, she has volunteered at the nursing home in Dale with Beta Club. Her hobbies include spending time with family and friends, being active outdoors, playing all sports, reading and attending church. Her plan after high school is to attend Kentucky Wesleyan to play soccer and major in either exercise science or criminal justice and criminology. She is sponsored by D&E Concrete.

Jenna Norrick

Peyton Roedel, of Gentryville, is the 17-year-old daughter of Isaac and Jennifer Roedel. A senior at Heritage Hills, she stands 5'3" and has brown hair and brown eyes. She is a cheerleader and a member of FCA, Pep Club, Patriot Vibe choir, and is on the executive crew of the Riley Dance Marathon, serving as Chair of the Silent Auction Committee. An active member of Santa Claus United Methodist Church, her hobbies include tumbling, reading, self-care, Netflix, the environment, and bees. After graduating, she plans to attend Ball State to earn a graduate degree in biology with the pre-optometry program, then attend the IU School of Optometry to obtain her O.D. and start her own practice. She is sponsored by Touch of Class.

(Continued on page 7)