Dale Fall Festival
Dale City Park - September 6 - 8

Dale Fall Festival:

The Biggest Small Town Festival In Southern Indiana

This year's 51st Annual Dale Fall Festival in Dale, "The Biggest Small Town Festival In Southern Indiana", offers non-stop entertainment. Most events are held at Dale City Park.

It all begins on Sunday September 2, at 7 p.m. EDT with talented young women competing to be Miss 2018 Dale Fall Festival at the $1,000 Scholarship Queen Pageant. The pageant will be held in the Heritage Hills High School Auditorium.

New this year "Wonder Wheels BMX Stunt Show" will perform several shows throughout the festival.

On Thursday night, September 6, come and be entertained by a group of adorable young boys and girls vying for the Little Miss and Mister title in the Little Miss and Mister contest, to be held on the center park stage at Dale City Park beginning at 6:30 p.m. The band "HONKY TONK DELUXE" will play on the center park stage from 8 - 10 p.m.

On Friday, September 7, Bomar and Ritter will be featured on the center park stage from 5 - 7 p.m. An exciting performance will be on the center park stage again this year featuring Terry Lee & The Rockaboogie Band from 8 - 11 p.m, which promises a fun piano-pumpin' performance of good ol' rock & roll!

Guilty Pleasure will be in the beer garden from 8 p.m. - 12 a.m. for the adult crowd.

On Saturday, September 8, kids games will start at 9 a.m. and "Silly Safaris Live Animal Show" will be on the large basketball court at 11:30 a.m. The band "CW3" will be performing on the center park stage from 12 - 2 p.m., so come early, grab a bite to eat, and enjoy the kids activities and music while you're waiting for the parade to start. The music will continue with the sounds of marching bands in the Big Parade at 2 p.m. Daryl and June Lovell will serve as Grand Marshals. The band, 2 Miles Back will perform after the parade on the center park stage from 3:30 - 7 p.m. Eighty-Six will be in the beer garden from 4 - 7 p.m. and, back by popular demand, Dirty Deeds AC/DC Tribute Band will close out this year's musical entertainment in the Beer Garden from 8 - 11 p.m.
