

Celebrating 100 Years of Service!

Dairy cows grazing on a Boone township farm in 1969. Dairy cows were a major livestock enterprise in Dubois County throughout the 20th Century, largely due to milk production in Holland through Coops that morphed into Holland Dairy. The dairy producer is now part of the farmer-owned Prairie Farms Corporation which boasts milk production from 900 farm families.

An early tractor pull at the new 4H Fairgrounds in Bretzville. Chairman of the Pull Donald Eck says there were about 200 local tractors pulling on this Saturday afternoon, with 2,000 people in attendance.
